

The Toronto Workshop Committee presents:

"Valuation issues before the Tax Court of Canada: The never-ending question of the expert's role"

Wednesday June 9, 2010

Presenter:

David W. Chodikoff, Partner, Miller Thomson LLP

Overview

David will review the latest developments before the courts involving valuation experts. This session will cover such important topics as estate freeze shares, FMV, transfer pricing and the role of the expert in such cases....what appear to be "in" and what seems to be on its way "out". Learn the factors that you should consider when preparing your next report for tax litigation purposes.
